LUKE SKYWALKER'S EXPENSE REPORT

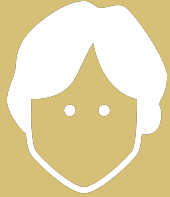

Luke Skywalker files his travel and expense report in a galaxy far, far away...

Despite existing in a world of science fiction, the dreams and ambitions of young Luke Skywalker in Star Wars are not that different from your average corporate employee. He wants to travel the galaxy and make a difference, but there are so many obstacles in his way.

Similarly, your employees want nothing more than to have a smooth business trip where they can focus on the job at hand rather than the minute details of the journey. While your employees don't have to work under the tyrannical governance of the Empire and the unrealistic expectations of Darth Vader, they do struggle with compliance because of policy obstacles in their path.

“YOU HAVE THAT POWER TOO. IN TIME
YOU’LL LEARN TO USE IT AS I HAVE.”

LUKE SKYWALKER

Integration is a revelation.

If Luke Skywalker was able to use the Deem Employee Suite for spend management, look how conveniently his needs pair with the diverse set of products available to him.

Purchase a box of power converters from Tosche Station.

Ship Death Star architectural plans to a trusted Rebel colleague.

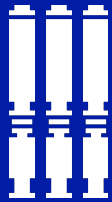

Book transport using a preferred starliner, like the Millennium Falcon, with pre-negotiated rates and within budget.

File an expense report to Admiral Ackbar to be reimbursed for this intergalactic journey.

Deem Travel lets Luke:

Book, change, or cancel travel plans using preferred vendors and pre-negotiated rates, all while remaining on policy and within budget.

The screenshot displays the Deem Travel interface for a flight from Tatooine to Alderaan, scheduled for Wednesday, May 4th to Monday, May 9th. The website view shows three flight options:

Carrier	Price	Flight Type
Corellian Cruises	from $429	Nonstop
Imperial Interplanetary Transit	from $388	Nonstop
No Questions Asked Starliner	from $345	Nonstop

Below the flight options, there are filters for Stops, Airports, Flight Times, Airlines, and More... The flights are sorted by Preferred, Price, and Duration. The preferred flight is the No Questions Asked Starliner, departing at 2:10 pm and arriving at 7:30 pm, with a 5hr 20m duration.

The mobile app view shows a similar interface with a menu on the right side containing options: Flight, Hotel, Car Rental, Expense, Approvals, and Capture a Receipt.
